

Proposals for Carlton and Rhyl primary schools – meetings for parents and the public

Summary of the proposals:

- Merge Rhyl and Carlton primary schools by formally closing Carlton as a legal entity.
- The merged school would be under the leadership of Rhyl and would include the site of Carlton
- Reduce school places overall to tackle surplus places
- Keep the Carlton Primary School site open for education and community use.

Parents and carers: find out more about these proposals at socially distanced meetings, held at Carlton or Rhyl primary schools, starting Wednesday 7 October.

The dates for the sessions are:

- October 7th
- October 14th
- October 22nd

Pre-booking is essential, you can book a space by:

Email: carltonandrhylproposal@camden.gov.uk, or

Call: 020 7974 4072.

Or call Carlton Primary: 0207 485 1947

Community public meetings: other members of the community and interested parties can also attend socially distanced meetings, starting Friday 9 October.

Pre-booking also essential via the contact details above.

You can also find out more, see the latest updates and respond to the consultation online at camden.gov.uk/carlton-and-rhyl